Why Don't You Contact Oprah?

We have contacted Oprah. She or her employees received many books:

- Five of Unraveling Your Past to get Into the Present,
 1. Two sent to her personally in 1998 and 1999 by a woman who used to work in the Chicago Mayor's office, an African American man. She was the liaison between the Mayor and Oprah and her staff during the Mayor's term.
 2. One sent to her by a famous make-up artist.
 3. Two sent to Oprah by me in 2002, and 2005
 4. One handed to O Magazine for review in 2003 by my niece who had O Magazine as a client
- Four of The Answer to Sun Tzu
 1. Two sent to her by the woman from the Chicago Mayor's office.
 2. One sent to her by the make-up artist.
 3. One sent to her by me in 2002.
- Two of Gentle Breeze Carrying the Scent of Flowers.
 1. One sent to her by the woman in the Mayor's office.
 2. One sent to her by the make-up artist.

I personally have e-mailed her website and O Magazine over 30 times about ideas for shows concerning the ego and the soul since 1999 even going so far as to list all of the ego-personalities for them. The last time I e-mailed her show was when Oprah had Eckhart Tolle's Class on for ten weeks in 2008. Listeners were asked to write about what they thought!!

Oprah has said that she feels that this is the reason that she was born, and that is to bring to the people this information about the ego. Well, if that were true she would have done it sooner than 2008. She could have done it with the original work Unraveling Your Past to Get Into the Present in 1999. And following the Eckhart Tolle class where Eckhart Tolle called the true self anything but the soul

Oprah had her own class where she said that she thought the true self was the soul. Very interesting.

Comments by Eckhart Tolle to Oprah:

Eckhart Tolle has described the “ego parts” in a similar manner as Paulette Renee Broqueville’s “ego-personalities” and he has peppered his books with information similar to PRB’s original work in her book, Unraveling Your Past to Get Into the Present ©1998,2002. (see the Comparison Table in the Blog: Eckhart Tolle Made Simple Class)

This is a bit more than reading spiritual books and then taking a blank piece of paper and writing down thoughts; which is what ET told a reader who emailed Oprah’s ten week class asking him “Where does your knowledge come from? How do you know what you know?” Regarding: A New Earth©2005.

Oprah had asked him a similar question in Class One:

Oprah: “First of all, I wanted to just talk to you about how this book came to you?” “How did this come to be? How did this come to you—through you?” (Regarding: A New Earth)

Eckhart Tolle: (His response is not about A New Earth as you will see but instead about his own creation—his own book The Power of Now)

“I bought a notepad, and suddenly the strong stream came through and I wrote. ‘What is enlightenment?’ The beginning of the Power of Now. The moment I wrote that, I knew this is the book that wants to be born. So rather than me wanting to write a book, there was a book that wanted to be written. I’m not saying that the writing happened automatically. My mind was involved. It wasn’t a channeled book such as. It was inspired, but not channeled, so it involved my thinking processes too. But the thinking process had to be inspired from something deeper. You can’t rely on your thinking processes only to—and produce something that is powerful and original. So this is how it started, as knowing that this is what life wants from me. The book wants to be born. (Note: he has been talking about The Power of Now even though the question was about A New Earth) And the same thing happened later with the New Earth, again a similar sense of oh there’s another book that wants to come. I didn’t know why because everybody told me, ‘Well, you’ve said it all in The Power of Now, why write another book? And I intellectually, I couldn’t have answered “Why am I writing another book? And it happened.”

End quote Eckhart Tolle from class 1 with Oprah.

In the May 2008 O Magazine Oprah asked Eckhart Tolle this question:

Oprah: Why did you need to write a follow-up, Stillness Speaks(©2003)?
(meaning follow-up to his book, The Power of Now©1999)

Eckhart Tolle: The teaching evolved in the years after the book came out; I had some new perspectives on the basic truth. Also, there was more to be said about that which blocks the new consciousness in most of us; one way to describe it is the human ego.

Hummm interesting

Oprah is not the only way to talk to the souls of the people. I can talk to you directly, and at your leisure, by these blogs. Soon we will have YouTube videos up for you to see and hear. Notice there is part of an interview, which I did on video in the introduction blog.

There is a lot to say and TV is not the best medium for this subject. TV is an interaction between the host or hostess and the guest, instead I am talking directly to your soul—my reader.

People have misconceptions about the ego. The ego ruins relationships: marriages, business partnerships, employee relationships, sibling relationships, friendships, egos marry each other and then divorce each other. The soul does not marry under false pretenses as the ego does. “I thought she loved me.” The ego lusts; it does not love; the ego is in relationships to use and abuse.

The soul is in relationships to give and to help.

A young woman told me recently: “I don’t have emotions like most people. I don’t know what to do to get them. I wasn’t raised that way.”

I asked her, “Do you feel love?”

“Oh yes,” she answered with feeling.

“Then you may find that there is nothing wrong with you.” I said and referred her to my blog.

I believe that she may be seeing the ego as the emotion that she mistakenly thinks she needs to have and she, her soul, is wondering if there is something wrong with her for not having it.

The soul only has two emotions: happy and sad.

And then over coffee today my friend told me her husband does not understand what the ego is. Her husband told her, “It is good to have an ego, it gives you self-confidence.”

Being the soul is having self-confidence. Being the ego is lacking Self, lacking soul; that lack causes a need to playact at being someone, anyone but you—the soul.

One of my neighbors was walking his dog the other night, we met, and I said to him, “My blog about getting rid of the ego is gaining readers. People want to get rid of their egos.”

“That wouldn’t be me!” He said as he cheerily went off with his dog.

I was surprised by his comment. He had played the game Who’s Talking®©2007 with his roommate, my niece and I in 2007. He was struck by the effect it had on him and told me at the time “It brought me to my knees.” It was a personal revelation to him. Now however in 2010 he had lost the inspiration he had then.

The game teaches you to be the soul. You get to practice while playing a game. I later reminded him of the game and made the connection between the game and getting rid of the ego.

What the game does not do is talk about the ego or the soul. It simply is the ego and the soul in action.

Eckhart Tolle does not refer to the soul as the real you; but he refers to many of the ego-personalities either directly or in synonym. So what does he say you are if you are not the soul: He says you are Being, Conscious self and Presence, this is what he calls the egoless. Who are they? And that, my dear reader, is left up to you to answer.

For those who are most interested in getting rid of the ego, the game Who’s Talking®©2007 will soon be available. A special thank you to those of you who have supported this blog whether it be by

- Reading it and finding it helps you in your personal life
- Telling others to read it or by
- Donations and purchasing books and e-books
